Five teachers who came to Sexton when its doors first opened are still faculty members on the school's Silver Anniversary: Miss Marguerite McConnell, Mrs. Grace Eiserman, Miss Elizabeth Lawry, Mr. Harold Lantz, and Miss Elsie Fee.

Miss Lawry came to Lansing Central in 1936 as a Latin teacher with a B.A. Degree from the University of Michigan. In 1937 she returned to U. of M. on a teaching fellowship and received her M.A. Degree in 1938. When Central High School moved into the new J. W. Sexton building in 1943, Miss Lawry became Assistant Principal. Since then she has served as advisor to Girl's League, Honor Society, Student Council, and is now advisor to the Student Relations Committee.

Elizabeth B. Lawry

Mrs. Eiserman, who holds an M. A. Degree from Michigan State University, has had a teaching career which includes such diverse activities as directing operettas and advising the Archery and Sub-Debs Clubs. She came to Central High School in 1935 as an English teacher and in 1959 became a counselor. Mrs. Eiserman presently advises the Bridge Club in addition to her regular counseling duties.

Mr. Lantz began teaching at the age of 19 after receiving his A.B. Degree from the University of Michigan. He taught for five years in Indiana, coming to Central High School in 1929 as a member of the Social Studies Department. In his 44 years of teaching high school, Mr. Lantz has been the advisor to the Athletic Boosters Club, the Young Men About Town Club, and has coached tennis, football, basketball and wrestling teams.

Miss Fee, chairman of the counseling department and advisor to the National Honor Society, joined the faculty of Central High School in 1942 as an English teacher. From 1944 to 1957 she taught Latin and Spanish and headed the Foreign language department. In 1957 she became a counselor. Miss Fee received her M.A. Degree from Michigan State University.

After receiving her B.S. Degree from Bowling Green, Miss McConnell taught in Ohio before becoming a member of Central High School's faculty in 1935. While at Central she taught English and French and earned her M.A. Degree from the University of Michigan in 1937. At Sexton, Miss McConnell has been a counselor and class advisor. She now teaches English and Latin and advises the Latin Club.

This is clearly shown as he presents the charter of the Future Teachers of America Club at Sexton to its President, Doris Hume, in 1950. (below) Mr. Roosenraad, 1954.*

Roosenraad Retirement

The Silver Anniversary of Sexton corresponds with another major event: the retirement of Mr. Christian H. Roosenraad, Sexton's principal of 25 years. Mr. Roosenraad began his educational career as principal of Coopersville High School in 1924 after graduating from Hope College. In 1928 he began teaching civics at Walter French Junior High after earning his M.A. Degree at University of Michigan. The Board of Education appointed Mr. Roosenraad assistant principal of Central High in 1937, and Principal of Sexton in 1943.

Winner in 1954

Each year one high school in the nation is given the Francis Bellamy Flag Award. The award, created by Miss Margarette Miller in honor of the author of the Pledge of Allegiance, is given to that high school which best represents the goals of American schools. Standards used in judging the schools are achievements of alumni, excellence in extra-curricular activities and academic accomplishments. In 1954 Sexton was selected to receive the Bellamy Flag Award.

When Dr. J. W. Sexton came to Lansing High School in 1911 there were 506 students (including the 9th grade) and 22 faculty members. He became Superintendent of Schools in 1916 while the school system grew enormously. Three junior high schools—West, Pattengill, Walter French—and the Walnut Street School for handicapped children were built under his guidance. Of the 22 grade school buildings existing, all but 6 were remodeled or rebuilt. Dr. Sexton added physical education programs, music programs, and vocational training to the curriculum. While he was still Superintendent the new high school was named in his honor—J. W. Sexton High School. Dr. Sexton retired in 1945 after giving a lifetime of service to his community. He died on November 7, 1963.

Capture Spirit Week Honors

"Enthusiastic" is the adjective to describe Spirit Week 1967-1968. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday were divided respectively between the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Competition was fierce, each class urging its members to wear the traditional red and white. The seniors finally picked up the honors with streamer-decked halls, "Sock it to 'em Seniors!" hats, and Spiritman Jim Lovitt.

Spirit Week ended on Friday with Scurve Day, and a Friday night bonfire lit the sky around Sexton before the Eastern game.

Nancy Strobel, ablaze in red and white, represented the juniors in costume competition.

Competition Highlights Scurve Day

During Scurve Day spirited Sextonites joined in the fun by wearing creative, zany costumes. This traditional celebration was held on Friday of Spirit Week. Competition was held to determine which students' costumes were the most original and best expressed the theme of "Sexton Spirit." The best costumes were then shown at the pep assembly, winners being awarded with record albums and runners-up receiving Quaker Oats boxes. To add to the festivities Tootsie Roll Pops were sold by Student Council Representatives throughout the day.

Homecoming

Features Look at Past

To commemorate Sexton's 25th anniversary the Student Council sponsored a student body float in red and white with a huge silver "25". Another float in the form of a miniature football field was constructed by the Varsity Club and the Varsity Cheerleaders.

Cheerleaders

Junior varsity cheerleaders are Peg Martin, Pam Gibson, Linda Kilpatrick, Valorie Jeffries, Janet Nemetz, and Paula Breininger (splitz).

Football games found the Varsity braving everything from ankle-deep mud to freezing weather.

A jubilant Carol Tucker cheers the Big Reds to victory.

Personify Big Red Spirit

Willingly meeting the responsibility of leading Sexton in sportsmanship and school spirit, the Varsity cheerleaders cheered at home games and pep assemblies, and accompanied the teams to all away games. The six members of the junior varsity squad, chosen in the fall, received guidance and training from the Varsity. Both squads continued selling spirit tags this year, and spent many hours painting posters for wrestling and swimming as well as football and basketball.

New Queen Reigns Over Winter

Festival

The second annual Winter Sports Festival was held during halftime of the Sexton-Eastern basketball game. During the pep assembly, held that day, the student body voted on the candidates for queen. The sophomore candidates were Lynn Irvine and Chris Johnson. Representing the Junior class were Jackie Lee and Janet Bishop. Candidates for the Senior class were Chris Mikrut and Patti Houston. Jackie Lee was crowned Winter Festival Queen, presented with one dozen roses, and received the honor of reigning over the second half of the basketball game.

Patti Houston and Charlie Guyselman applaud as Sheryl Hogan places the crown on Jackie's head and Linda Grahmm presents her with roses.

Prior to announcing the '68 Winter Festival Queen, the candidates received corsages. Bob Carr, Connie Kapugia and Tom Lee present Lynn Irvine, Jackie Lee and Patti Houston with the corsages.

Council Sponsors 25th Anniversary Celebration

Achievement by the school for the school was the main objective of Sexton's Student Council this year. On Scurve Day the council sponsored a sale of Tootsie Roll Pops. With some of the proceeds of the sale the council was able to buy a new headdress for the Big Red Indian. Besides organizing fall homecoming, the council continued the tradition begun last year of the Winter Sports Festival and also participated in Sexton's twenty-fifth anniversary celebration.

Second semester initiates were David Richardson, Sherry Thompson, Karen Townsend, Jean Stow, Brian Bevez, Norman Milks, Sue Curtis, Julia Kaiser, Kathy Heinline, Rebecca Long, Diane Smith, Dennis Hinkle, Kathy Stinson, Karla Mathiason, Melinda Ehrlin, Patti Houston, Barb Jean, Pam Church, Dammon Stutes, Rick Brass, Sharanne Atwood, Joan Moore, Walter Smiley, Robert Knaggs, Jerry Bellinger, George Sinas.

National Honor Society Hosts All City Christmas Party

Anne Zajac gives Christmas reading, when Sexton hosted Eastern and Everett.

This year, the Sexton chapter of the National Honor Society was host for the annual Sexton-Eastern-Everett Christmas party. After greeting their guests in the foyer, the Honor Society led them to the library where Anne Zajac gave a Christmas reading, and selections were presented by the Madrigal Singers.

Candidates for membership in the National Honor Society are chosen on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship, and service. Juniors must have a 3.6 scholastic average and seniors a 3.3 to be eligible.

1968 Oracle

Although windowless, the Oracle room houses the production of a great view of life at Sexton.

In preparation for the '68 Oracle, the senior editors worked on the staff as juniors and attended an all-day workshop at the University of Detroit in the spring. Co-editors-in-Chief Nancy Bronyish and Anne Zajac had an additional opportunity to study yearbook production when they attended the National Scholastic Press Association convention in Chicago.

Zodiac Publishes Special Issues

Moments of panic are not uncommon in the lives of Zodiac staff members. Struggling to meet deadlines, fit headlines in the spaces allotted, and draw layouts creates special tensions and problems for editors and reporters alike. When in doubt or difficulty, however, help was always available from the faculty advisors, Mrs. Ann Stoakes and Mr. Gordon Lind.

This year, besides putting out the regular issues, the Zodiac staff published two special editions, the Maniac and a 25th Anniversary Edition.

Business Staffs Finance Publications

Financing the publication of the yearbook is the function of the six member Oracle business staff. The staff raises funds by soliciting ads from merchants, managing the sale and distribution of yearbooks, and selling miniature pictures.

The nine member Zodiac business staff makes the printing of the school paper possible by selling ads to local merchants.

The G.O. ticket staff is responsible for selling and distributing G.O. tickets to students. The funds from the sale help support the Oracle, the Zodiac, music, drama, and athletics at Sexton.

A great deal of money changes hands when the Oracles are on sale.

ZODIAC business staff: Seated: Sue Place, Ann Moore, Debbie Anderson. Standing: Bill Siedelberg, Mr. Gordon Lind, Marcel Kohler, Garry Goodwin, Bob Cook, and Jim Meredith.

This year the G.O. Business staff included: Marci Whitney, Janice Fenner, Judy Lathan, Darlene Dack, and Mr. Wayne Pede, advisor.

Pat Drouin (with chalk) illustrates a problem in algebra to Walt Smiley, Diane Warringer, Becky Long, Tom Glennan, Barb Spence, Ray Haka, and Randy Black.

Computers Studied by Math Club

Examining the mechanics of a giant slide rule are Linda Graham, Cora Aho, Tom Lee, Mitchal Stutes, Bob Knaggs, Mr. Rittenhouse, and Anne Zajac.

The transformation of mathematical and scientific formulas into computer programs was the major project of the Math Club this year. Under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Edward Rittenhouse, club members were able to run computer programs they had completed through the computer belonging to the Board of Education. To supplement its regular meetings the Math Club organized a field trip to the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago.

Rick Brass, Wing Wah Lum, Jim Jones, Mary Andrus, Virginia Bower, Claudia Kelly, Ellen Symons, Jean Stow, Cathy Carlson, and Julia Kaiser familiarize themselves with geometric models.

Co-ed Hi-Y Active in Community

A candy sale, service projects, parties, a ski trip, and a canoe trip made this year a busy and productive one for the fifty juniors and seniors in Sexton's Co-ed Hi-Y. Service projects for the Y. M. C. A. affiliated group were sending Thanksgiving baskets to needy families, packing boxes for Vietnamese children, and working on the Muscular Dystrophy doughnut drive. A joint party with the Everett Hi-Y Club was held during Christmas vacation. Admission to the party was a toy to be contributed to the Toys for Tots Campaign.

Realizing the importance of communication between the peoples of the world, the U. N. Panel gained perspectives on other nations with speakers from Pakistan and Israel. Three members were sent as delegates to the Model United Nations Assembly which is held each spring at Hillsdale College. Claudia Kelly, Diane Smith, and Anne Zajac represented Nepal at the assembly, under the guidance of advisor Mr. Alfred Eger.

Speakers Stimulate U.N. Panel

Oke Natt och Dag Adapts to Sexton

Unable to successfully evade the Oracle camera, Oke was caught in every situation.

Wishing to meet Americans and live with an American family, Oke Natt och Dag from Stockholm, Sweden joined the Youth for Understanding Program. American government, U.S. history, speech, music appreciation, sociology, and physical education have helped Oke learn more about the American way of life. Oke joined the U.N. Panel, the Ski Club, and laws made an honorary member of the Student Council.

When back in Sweden again, Oke plans to complete three years at the gymnasium, which is equivalent to our high school. He plans to return to the U.S. for college and hopes to become a diplomat.

Debaters See Tournament Action

Research, preparation, planning, and practice were the backbone for the topic—Resolved: That Congress should establish uniform regulations to control criminal investigation procedures. From late October to early February, the Varsity debaters participated in state competition, the 6-A League, the Lansing City Championship, and the Out-State League. The junior varsity teams participated in the Capital City and Out-State Leagues. In addition to the Varsity and Junior Varsity, a new team of Novice debaters was formed this year.

"Anne Frank–

Anne's antics often eased the tense atmosphere of the two years in hiding.

Anne and Peter, who became friends and allies, often spent time together talking and discussing their problems.

Struggle for Freedom, Identity

"In spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart." With these words two years of hardship, sorrow, tolerance, occasional joy, and often humor came to an end. Speaking these words was Anne Frank, and her story of two years in hiding in an Amsterdam attic during World War II and the lives of the people involved with her was Sexton's dramatic production for the season, under the direction of Mrs. Linda Stone and student director Cindy Essenberg.

The Diary of Anne Frank began with the initial meeting of the Frank and Van Daan families. As time passed, with the addition of Mr. Dussel and the assistance of Miep and Mr. Kraler, the absorbing story of survival in Nazi-dominated Amsterdam unfolded.

Margot adjusts Anne's skirt on one of the "dress-up" occasions of a visit to Peter's room.

When Annie discovers that her shooting match is with handsome Frank Butler she realizes that there may be more at stake than she had bargained on, and reflects that "You Can't Get a Man with a Gun."

In the reprise of "The Girl That I Marry" Frank Butler (Rex Carter) enumerates the qualities of his future bride-to-be.

'Annie' Shoots Way Through Musical

Cowboys, Indians, sharpshooter Annie Oakley, and hit show tunes combined to make Annie Get Your Gun a delightful production.

Annie (Janet Bishop) wins a shooting contest against Frank Butler (Rex Carter), the handsome star of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Buffalo Bill hires her as an assistant to Frank but she soon becomes a star in her own right. Annie sets out to win Frank with her shooting skill but she soon finds that "You Can't Get a Man with a Gun" when Frank leaves to star in rival Pawnee Bill's Show. Later both shows experience financial difficulties and merge. Frank and Annie are then reunited and discover anew that "There's No Business Like Show Business."

"Doin' What Comes Naturally" is a favorite pastime for Little Jake (Gary Soderman), Annie (Janet Bishop), Jessie (Lisa McCampbell), and Nellie (Nana Hareski).

Cindy Essenberg and her date Bob Carr of Everett appear to enjoy each other as well as "Song of India."

Mark Murninghan and Kris Kessler are greeted by Miss Marjorie Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Roosenraad, and Miss Eliazbeth Lawry at the 1968 J-Hop.

"Song of India" at 1968 J-Hop

Following a current trend towards Eastern culture, the junior class presented "Song of India" as the 1968 J-Hop. All eyes were drawn to the representation of the Taj Mahal complete with reflecting pool and goldfish. Live trees, benches borrowed from Sexton's grounds, India posters, and dancing girls added the finishing touches. Music was provided by Mike Keen and his orchestra. The Casino Royales. Guiding the volunteer committees were junior class advisors Mrs. Susan Shepherd and Mr. Alfred Eger.

PTA Meeting Honors Roosenraad, 25 Years of "Big Red" Progress

The P.T.A. meeting on February 27th commemorated the 25th anniversary of Sexton High School. State Representative Thomas L. Brown read a legislative resolution congratulating Sexton and Principal Christian H. Roosenraad on twenty-five years of educational leadership. Members of the faculty and student body presented vignettes under the direction of Mrs. Janice Barnes and Mrs. Ann Wilson. The sketches recalled the temporary boardwalks across the mud surrounding the new building, men teachers helping to install the plumbing, and the uncertain heating during an extended coal miners' strike. Mayor Max E. Murninghan gave a short speech honoring Mr. Roosenraad, announcing the dedication of the Sexton auditorium in his name, and unveiling a color portrait of the principal to be placed in the auditorium foyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosenraad proudly display the award of recognition presented to Mr. Roosenraad by the Sexton PTA.

Superintendent of Schools Stephen Partington congratulates Mr. Roosenraad on his 25 years of service to Sexton.

"Beaver Bush," "Kabubi," "Bizby," "Chicken Wing," "Roach," and "Brother Miller" pay homage to Mr. Doug Herner during the bomb-scare assembly.

"Pray for rain!" "Go look for your brains in that wastebasket!" These are the common commands heard early in each semester as a new group of boys are initiated into Boys' Varsity Club. Membership is open to any boy who has earned a varsity letter in any Setxon sport. This year the WJIM "Live Guys" were invited to play a basketball game against a combined Varsity Club-faculty team which proved to be as hair-raising as it was exciting—WJIM winning by a small margin in the closing minutes of the game.

Mrs. Heisst discusses the Mardi Gras with Barb Spence, Pat Drouin, and Barb DeBar.

Members of the French Club this year were given an opportunity to practice their French when the club organized a field trip to see the French movie Jules et Jim. An appreciation of French life and customs was achieved through the annual banquet and having a teacher from France as a speaker. The club also participated in a city-wide Mardi Gras held at Everett High School

Faschings, Picnic Highlight German Club Year

To the surprise of the new initiates in German Club this year, they found that they were required to eat a concoction of sauerkraut, spinach, and candied onions in order to become members of the club. Everyone managed to remain good sports, however, and Der Deutsche Verein began its new year of activities. A Faschings, or masquerade ball, the traditional Christmas party, and June picnic were planned as highlights.

Being a member of Spanish club requires not only regular attendance at the meetings, but also researching and reporting on various aspects of Spanish history and life. Guest speakers from South and Central America helped the club celebrate Christmas as they enriched members' knowledge of the Spanish speaking peoples by describing different Yuletide customs in countries such as Cuba and Argentina.

Native Speakers Enlighten Club

"Efficient" Describes Library Staff

For the majority of Sexton students the library is a place to study, do research for term papers, and meet friends. But for the library staff harder and more exacting work is demanded. They are responsible for the efficient circulation of library materials. Filing cards and shelving books are only a few of the necessary services performed by the student members of the library staff.

Student Relations Hosts Sixth Graders

The Student Relations Committee under chairman Chris Hutchison is composed of two girls and two boys from each class. The purpose of the group is to promote better understanding and co-operation not only among Sexton students but also among others in the community. The committee sponsored tours of Setxon for Career Clubs of sixth grade classes of several nearby elementary schools, as well as hosting students from East Lansing High School.

Seven Members Represent Chess Club

At weekly meetings Sexton's chess fiends have competition to determine who will play on the seven member team representing the club in the Central Michigan Chess League Tournament. During the meetings members also analyze their games, discovering strong points and learning to strengthen weak points.

FTA Benefits Needy Children

Sandy Horton utilizes an overhead projector in her math class at West Junior.

A variety of interesting and challenging activities filled the year for members of Sexton's Future Teachers of America. With the help of the funds raised from the annual sale of Sexton Mums, the Future Teachers sponsored a Christmas party for forty under-privileged children in the Lansing area. Visiting college campuses gave members an opportunity to get a closer look at some of the higher educational institutions in Michigan.

Practical Training in FTEC

A few fortunate Sexton seniors participated this year in the Future Teacher Education Corps. These students received one credit per semester for "cadet teaching" two hours each day at an elementary or junior high school. Their experiences included giving demonstrations, helping slow learners, and presenting special material. Any senior member of F.T.A. with a high scholastic average is eligible for the F.T.E.C. program.

Band Sells Candy to Finance Trip to Dallas Lions Convention

The Concert Band practices a variety of music including novelty numbers, pieces featuring soloists, popular music, and serious concert music. Activities for the concert band were the district Solo and Ensemble Festival, the district Band Festival, the spring concert, and selling candy to finance the trip to Dallas to play at the Lions Convention. Selected members of the concert band played for the Old Newsboy's paper sale, the Chamber of Commerce, and at Sexton's 25th anniversary celebration.

Promoting school spirit was one of the duties of the Pep Band, which consisted of concert band members. The pep band played at all pep assemblies and home basketball games.

Dance Band Plays Special Engagements

Besides having the pleasure of making lively music, Sexton's Dance Band performs upon request at civic functions. This year it played at a service club luncheon at the Jack Tar and provided memory music for the Silver Anniversary ceremony.

Orchestra Rehearses for Spring Concert

The Sexton orchestra scored its first success this year with the performance of Handel's Messiah. Much time was spent in rehearsal for the all-school musical, Annie Get Your Gun, and for the spring concert. The string orchestra, which meets daily, is complemented by band members at practices and performances.

Members of the Band watch as Tom Davidson and John Lee change from Band uniforms to Orchestra uniforms. Many Band members are used to supplement the Orchestra.

Girl's Glee Club, Madrigals,

Wardrobe manager Tim Davenport gets wrapped up in his work. Janet Bishop, Rex Carter and Ron Allen help wrap him.

Singing for the Old Car Club and other various groups has kept the Girls' Glee Club very active. The Girls' Glee Club performed old English carols in their Ceremony of Carols at the Christmas concert and also sang at school assemblies.

Another vocal group, the Madrigals, find themselves much in demand by local clubs and service groups. The fourteen Madrigal singers are all members of the choir.

The A Cappella Choir represented Sexton this year in many different activities. Under the direction of Mr. McKowan, the choir presented the Christmas and Easter assemblies and sang for such groups as the Rotary Club.

Choir Enjoy Active Schedule

WXES "Turns On" Mornings

Linda Graham provides records for one of WXES's morning shows.

Each morning before school WXES brought music and news to Sexton students. Disc jockeys Tom Cathey and Rick Brass recorded programs to be played back over the public address system. WXES, initiated last year, has continued through the assistance of Student Council and the WXES Card Club. Records used by the station belonged to the disc jockeys or were purchased with the proceeds from the Card Club sales.

DECA Offers Job Experience

Carol Kapugia, morning Co-op student at Green's Apparel, arranges new spring clothes on hangers.

Membership in Sexton's DECA club (Distributive Education Clubs of America) is open to those students in the Retailing Cooperative Occupational Training Program. In the fall members sold DECA calendars to raise money for the field trip to the Marshall Field department store in Chicago. Later in the year two members attended the Michigan DECA convention in Battle Creek to approve the Constitution and elect state officers. Sexton DECA also entered the Michigan DECA competition held in March at Western Michigan University.

Y-Teens Send Packages to Vietnam

Working with the Co-ed Hi-Y, the Y-Teens sent seven boxes of soap and clothing to help make Christmas happier for some Viet Namese children. Other club activities were dressing Christmas dolls for the Salvation Army and caroling at a home for the elderly. The Y-Teen club, affiliated with the Y.W.C.A. is open to all girls.

Lin Rybnikar, Pam Cheetham, Chris Beardsley, and Geri Keck wrap packages for shipment to Viet Nam for Christmas.

F.N.A. members: Lucy Joslyn, Mrs. Wiedbrauk, Sherry Thompson, Linda Rochon, Sharon Harrington, Elaine Dungey, Renee Snell, Lois Williams, Julie Hester.

F.N.A. Visits Henry Ford Hospital

Selling Sexton stationery, hearing guest speakers, and taking trips made a full year for F.N.A. members. The girls, interested in all areas of nursing, took excursions to Ingham Medical Hospital in Lansing and to Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. Three club members chose to add to their knowledge by taking a nurses' aid course at Ingham Medical Hospital.

First semester members and initiates of Girls' Varsity Club were Ann Snyder, Jean Stowe, Linda Graham, Doris Wilkie, Nancy Neill, Kathy Earl, and Sheryl Hogan.

G.A.A. has an activity every week-day after school. On Wednesday Anne Steinbach, Sharon Ashley, Evelyn Ely, Daria Parker, Sue Hepfer and Judy Farr play billiards.

G.A.A. Stages "Pizza 500"

G.A.A. Board members this year were Sherri Martinson, Paul Breininger, Ann Snyder, Kathy Earl, Jean Stowe and Kathy Earl.

Girls' Athletic Association members had an opportunity to "brush-up" on their tricycle riding skills at the "Pizza 500" party. Among the after school activities sponsored by the G.A.A. were the girls' swim team and the new gymnastics club. G.A.A. is open to all girls and each girl receives 10 points for every after school activity she attends.

When a girl has accumulated 650 points, she is eligible to become a member of the Girls' Varsity Club. Under the direction of Miss Janet McDonald, Girls' Varsity held the annual car wash and sold programs for the basketball games.

Swim Show Enters Time Tunnel

After months of practice, the Dolphynettes presented the tenth annual synchronized swim show. "Through the Time Tunnel" was presented April 25th and 26th. The audience was shown glimpses of the past, present, and future with routines involving Tarzan and Jane, flappers, Bonnie and Clyde, Egyptians, Martians, Southern Belles, baseball, and a solo with Sheryl Hogan representing the spirit of time. The narration was given by Terri Sweet and the advisor is Mrs. Kepler. Jack Griffin and Bill Mazurek were Tarzan and Clyde.

Teresa Lewis displays rigid muscular control as she practices a ballet leg for the water show.

Ski Club Begun for Instructional Purposes

The Ski Club, a new club this year, endeavored to teach the novice skiers the hows and whys of skiing and gave valuable hints to the more experienced skiers. Movies were shown on skiing as a sport and as a livelihood. The Ski Club plans to have at least one ski trip each year. The advisor is Mr. David Wurzer.

Carol Benson got hung up in a tree while practicing her skiing technique behind Sexton one day.

Conservation Club Observes Gun Safety

Club members take notice of the shot pattern of Arthur Nonhof at one of the rifle practices.

Organized for students wishing to take an active part in preserving natural resources, the Conservation Club provides an opportunity for greater learning to those interested in Conservation as a career. Films and lectures aided club members in their study of ecology. A special project this year was a gun safety program for the club members.

Sophisticated Sophs Show Fashions

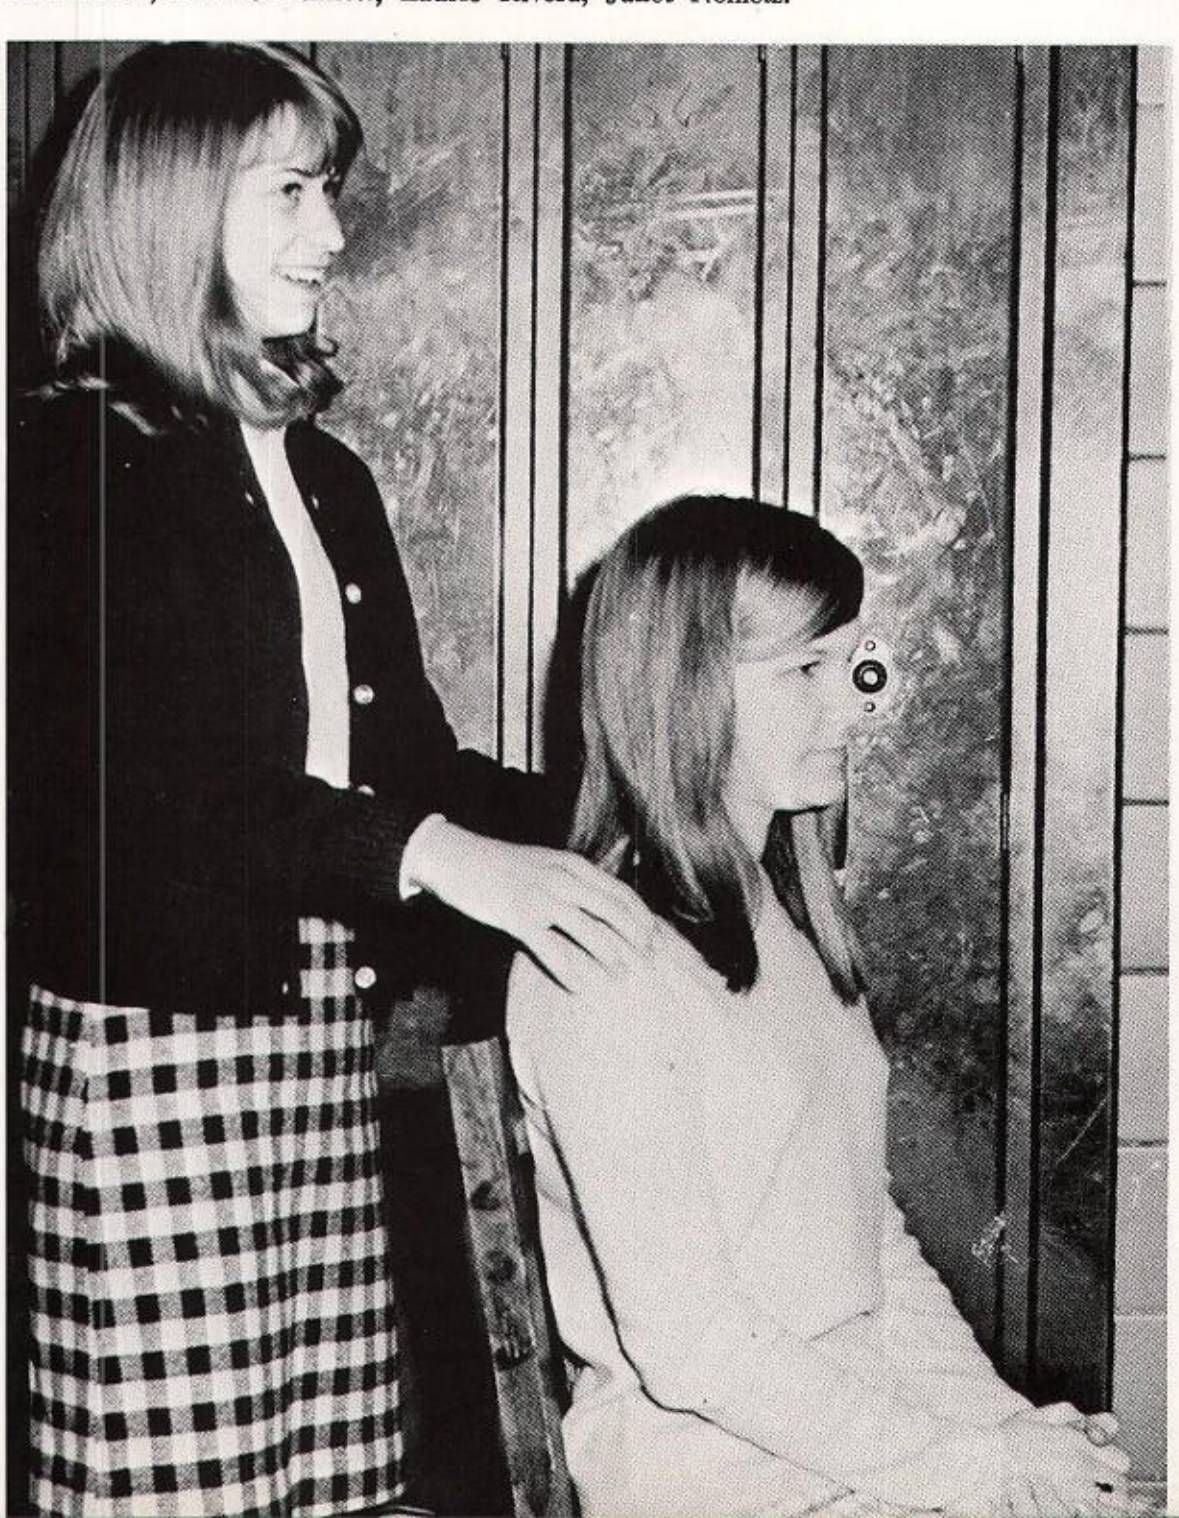
Standing: Kathy Wood, René Cameron, Sharon Kellow, Becky Green, Liz Davenport, Kathy Mansberger, Debbie Huff, Patti Oberst, Kim Kauffman, Sharon Garner, Lisa Sessions, Cherie LeBlanc, Marg Graeff. Seated on Bench: Chere Pointer, Sue Davis, Gretchen Irwin, Debbie Schlotter, Mrs. Jean Swanson, Lisa McCampbell, Cathi Gregg, Cathy Gaunt, Robyn Saul, Sue Jackson. Seated on Floor: Francé Richardson, Debbie Burnett, Laurie Rivera, Janet Nemetz.



Each year the Sophisticated Sophs devote their meetings to programs on good grooming, dating, and high school behavior. Mrs. Donald Lundburg from the University Beauty Salon spoke to the girls on hair care and cosmetics. The most outstanding activity of the year was a fashion show sponsored by Lett's Fashions.

Campus Life Stages Love-in

Designing Posters for their Love-in are Margaret McLain, Dennis Culver, Nyla Munk, Kristine Davis, and Jo Cox.

The Campus Life Club, a group for Christian teenagers, discusses the young people's relationship to God and the many problems to be faced in today's complex world. To gain admission to the all-school Love-in, sponsored by the club, each person brought a nickel, a protest sign, a blanket, and dressed as a hippie. Each "hippie" received flowers and psychadelic love potion.

Philosophy Club Exchanges Ideas

Organized last year by students wishing to have discussion sessions, the Philosophy Club was not given its name until this year. Topics for discussion include politics, morals, news, school, and world affairs, with question and answer periods always following guest speakers. Through discussion, the club members are learning to understand and communicate more effectively with the people around them.

Programs Display Music, Words,

Twice U.S. Trampoline Champion Ronnie Munn and his wife Carol demonstrate Spaceball to the Sexton student body.

George Sinas delivers a speech at the second semester Student Council campaign assembly.

Speaker Roland Myers appears to be no match for Miss Lawry when it comes to "The Romance of Words."

Action in 1968

Music, lectures, and even gymnastics made the line-up of assemblies interesting, appealing, and educational this year. The Bentley High School Choir from Livonia performed the first semester and Roland Myers, a noted linguist, lectured on "The Romance of Words." A very popular assembly was the demonstration of Spaceball on the trampoline featuring "volunteers" from the audience. Other assemblies included musician Ken Henderson, Chuck Naidl and his reptiles, and a theatre workshop of Chekhov's The Boor.

CURRICULUM

Administration Meets Changing Social and Educational Trends

The Lansing Board of Education seeks to develop the educational foundation of the student's life. Of primary concern to the Board is the advancement of facilities and trends in curriculum.

During the year, Stephen A. Partington was named as Superintendent of Schools. He succeeded Dr. William Manning, who became Superintendent of the Washington D.C. school system. Mr. Partington and the 1967-68 Board have been viewing possibilities of rezoning the school system of Lansing to ensure equal distribution of students, taking into consideration the addition of a new high school to to be opened in the future.

The Board also participated in Sexton's anniversary celebrations, and dedicated the auditorium to retiring Principal Christian Roosenraad.

Formulating school policy and serving as a link between the school and the community are the chief duties of Mr. Roosenraad. Administration of an institution as large as Sexton has required great foresight and devotion from our principal.

Mr. Cassius Shaft has had the opportunity to view Sexton as a teacher and an administrator. His duties now include discipline, attendance, and enrollment. As assistant principal, he is advisor to the Student Council.

It is with justification that Miss Elizabeth Lawry considers herself "one of the bricks of Sexton." Added to working on college admissions and scholarships, and heading the guidance department, Miss Lawry, assistant principal, takes care of "anything that comes in the door."

This year's Board members are Richard Beers, Mrs. A. Nussdorfer, Clarence Rosa, President Mrs. R. Gibson, Superintendent of Schools Stephen Partington, Vernon Ebersole, Mrs. E. Boucher, and Thomas Walsh.

Philosophy Comes to Sexton

Always seeking new ideas to enrich the minds of students, the English Department added a new course in philosophy second semester. The course is built around the contributions of philosophers to Western thought. The course teaches logic as well as a history of ideas.

Now beyond the experimental stage, World Literature is a course in the great literary works of the world. Along with studying Greek and Roman mythology and such works as Don Quixote, students have a chance to display creativity in art projects.

Analysis and Probability Add to Math Curriculum

Analysis and probability were two new math courses offered at Sexton this year. Analysis is a modern approach to algebra and analytical geometry while probability is the study and testing of hypothesis.

Students choose between the two courses after careful evaluation as to which would be most useful in college and in their careers.

More seniors have taken math and more underclassmen have decided on math majors since analysis and probability were added to the curriculum.

Secretaries Fulfill Daily Duties

Always striving to keep ahead of their endless tasks, the four school secretaries keep the office operating efficiently. In addition to routine duties, the secretaries also sell tickets and place student grades on permanent records. The quartet of secretaries while responding to student and teacher problems and requests with pleasant helpfulness perform a vitally necessary "behind the scenes" job.

Bush, Guyselman, McBrien Named to All-City Team

The 1967 football season was more than satisfactory in many ways. The squad opened the season with an unexpected victory over the highly rated Muskegon team. The Big Reds also won 6-A League games against Ann Arbor and Jackson. Sophomore Lowell Wade was elected the Most Valuable Player, Tom Bush was named best offensive lineman, and Charlie Guyselman received the "Gas Can Award" for displaying the most humor. Since the majority of the starters will be returning, Coach Ed Majdeski is optimistic when looking toward the future. The Junior Varsity produced an exceptional season during 1967. Coaches Ted Nixon and Bob Campbell's gridders took the city title with little difficulty. Greg Earl and Gary Bush were named the Most Valuable Players on the squad.

High Scorer Moore Leads Big Reds

The Big Red Varsity Basketball Team made an impressive season record of 10 wins and 8 losses. This year's squad was led by high scorer Bernard Moore, strong rebounder Jim Breedlove, center Mark Davenport, guard Bill Magee, and forward Mike Mc Brien. The Big Red Cagers finished 3rd in the 6-A and placed 3rd in the Holiday Tournament at the Civic Center.

The 1967-1968 swimming team compiled a 6-5 record for the first winning season in several years. Co-captains Chris Hutchison, Mels Kohler, Larry Blanken, and Mike Croze led Coach Matt Mann's team to a 2nd place in the city meet and a 4th place in the 6-A meet. In the city meet, the medley team set a pool and meet record. Mike Croze and diver Larry Blanken placed 2nd in the city while Mels Kohler set a meet record in the hundred yard freestyle event.

Coach Lee Dietrick, new to Sexton this year, directed his wrestlers through a successful season. Matt Miller compiled a 23-5-0 record and placed first in the Eastern meet. Morrie Smith had a 17-4-0 season, placing first in the city meet and second in the 6-A. With a 24-4-0 record, Marty Chouinard placed first in the Loy Norrix Meet, the city meet, and the 6-A. Jim Callard had a 26-2-1 record and finished first in both the city and the 6-A. Also placing first in the 6-A was Dave Ciolek with a record of 13-9-0. The Big Reds placed 5th in the Eastern Invitational, 1st in the Loy Norrix Meet, 2nd in the city meet and 3rd in the 6-A.

Sexton trackmen showed the initiative to come from behind to defeat Eastern in what Coach Vern Dunham termed "the most outstanding victory of the season." Sexton overtook the Quakers in the last event for an exciting win. Paced by Phil Lewis and Oscar Thomas, co-captains, and Jim Armstrong, the most valuable player on the squad, Sexton compiled a 2-4 regular season record in 1967. The team also placed 5th in the Albion relays, 3rd in All-City and finished 4th in the 6-A league.

The highlight of the 1967 Baseball season was a 5-4 victory over city champ Everett. Under the direction of Coach Bob Campbell, several Big Red players turned in outstanding performances. Charlie Askew swung his bat at a .395 clip, and Fred Smith won the most valuable player award by doing an outstanding job on the pitching mound and in the outfield.

The junior varsity produced a 4-5-1 record under the coaching of Ted Nixon and seasoned several sophomores to strengthen the Big Red lineup next year.

Triumph and frustration combined to give the 1967 Tennis team a record of 5 wins against 10 defeats. The Big Red netters defeated arch-rivals Eastern and Everett two times each, over running Eastern 5-2 in the first meeting and 4-3 in the second. The Big Reds posted these same scores in their two contests with Everett. Coach Richard Bates named Mark Olson the most outstanding team member. Olson won 18 sets while losing only 7. Sexton, runner-up in the Waverly Invitational, tied for second place in the Regionals and came in 5th in the 6-A league.

Even though graduation took its toll of team members, the Big Red Harriers under Coach Richard Bates compiled a favorable record. Junior Bill Magee led the 1967 squad, finishing 8th out of 42 in the 6-A meet. Magee placed 14th out of 126 runners in the state meet. Linton Stalling and Wayne Belbeck were the number two and three runners for the Big Red team.

Wayne Belbeck steps high in an effort to pass a speedy foe.

Big Red Liton Stalling strains as he crosses the finish line in the All-City Meet at Waverly Golf Course.

Sexton harriers Dave Meyers, Don Campbell, Ken Turner, and Harvey Lockhart set out on their exhausting two mile run.

Golfers Place 4th in State Regionals

The 1967 Golf Team: Standing: Coach Gerald Ritchey, Vic Jones, Rod Putnam, Jim Raff, Rick Bowman. Kneeling: Mike Husby, Rex Schlaybaugh, Steve Zynda.

Sexton's Golf Team displayed fine ability and excellent golfing form during the season. Vic Jones, Mike Husby, Rod Putnam, Rex Schlaybaugh, Rick Bowman, and Captain Jim Raff paced the varsity squad in 1967. All these letter winners, with the exception of Raff and Schlaybaugh, returned for the 1968 campaign. Coach Gerald Ritchey called Mike Husby the best putter on the team. Husby also had the lowest score in the state regionals, shooting a 72. The Big Red's best match came at Green Meadows Golf Course against Eastern, when the team shot a very impressive 313. Sexton also placed fourth in the State Regionals and finished 4th in the All-City match.

Girls Bowling Team: Standing: Debbie Hoff, Sue Davis, Mary Bell, Advisor Janet Mac Donald, Laura Paige, Rose Hankerson, Barb DeBar, Susie Hepfer. Sitting: Jill Hamilton, Viola Hope.

The excitement of competition and the opportunity for fun and exercise drew girls out for a variety of sports. Volleyball, basketball, and track gave the girls a chance to really "let off steam" after being in classes all day. Billiards, bowling, and gymnastics provided lighter recreation during after school hours. The girls' swim team, practicing several times a week, placed third in the city swimming meet.

Mrs. Carol Kepler explains some of the rules of Chinese soccer to Anna Defouw and Janet Sisco.

Sexton Girls Compete in Sports

Senior Doris Wilkie assumes the starting position prior to racing the 200 meter free style.

Girls Swim Team 3rd in City

who said we need graduates at MBT?

whoever it was... is right.

We need lots of them all over the state. Because they're very important persons at Michigan Bell. And handle a lot of responsible jobs . . . like Telephone Operators, Typists, Keypunch Operators, Service Representatives, and many more.

We're sure you've got the special talents these jobs require. So if you want to be involved in the exciting field of telephone communications, now's the time to take advantage of a good opportunity. Be sure to stop by and see us soon.
